Scales of 3 & 4 octaves

- 1) Bei den Tonleitern durch 4 Oktaven kann man die beiden angegebenen Fingersätze verwenden.
- 2) Bei den Tonleitern durch 3 Oktaven wende man die Fingersätze unter den Noten an.

- 1^{re} Pour les gammes à 4 octaves on peut employer les deux doigtés indiqués.
- 2^e Pour les gammes à 3 octaves n'employer que le doigté placé au dessous des notes.

- 1) For scales of 4 octaves both the fingerings indicated can be used.
- 2) For scales of 3 octaves use the fingering printed below the notes.

4^e Octave ad libitum

The musical score displays scales for four key signatures: C, C#, D, and Eb. Each key signature is represented by two staves (bass and treble clef). The scales are written in 3/4 time. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-4 below the notes. The C scale includes a section for the 4th octave, marked '4^e Octave ad libitum'. The scales are presented in both ascending and descending directions.

Handwritten musical score for guitar, page 27. The score is organized into five systems, each corresponding to a specific fret position: E, F, Fis, G, and G. Each system contains two staves (treble and bass clef) and includes complex fingerings (numbers 1-4) and articulation marks (accents, slurs, and ties). The key signature is E major (four sharps: F#, C#, G#, D#). The time signature is 4/4. The notation includes various musical symbols such as eighth notes, sixteenth notes, and triplets, often grouped with slurs and fingerings. The systems are labeled on the left side of the page: E, F, Fis, G, and G. The score is written in a clear, professional style, typical of a guitar method book or a composer's manuscript.

The musical score consists of six systems, each with two staves. The notation is complex, featuring many sixteenth and thirty-second notes, often beamed together. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1, 2, 3, and 4. Some systems include slurs and ties. The key signature changes across the systems: the first two systems are in A-flat major (three flats), the next two are in A major (no sharps or flats), and the last two are in B major (two sharps). The time signature is 3/4.
